

On The Bright Side

Don't be taken in by the media, it's not all doom and gloom!

Here's another occasional Postcard and in the current climate of negativity it seems to me that it's important to actively look for reasons to be hopeful and sometimes the media does take a brighter approach!

Check out this article from The Age, November 29, 2008 "A schoolies trip far from the gagging crowd" to find at least one reason to be optimistic about today's young adults. (I know there are more)

<http://www.theage.com.au/national/a-schoolies-trip-far-from-the-gagging-crowd-20081128-6n0z.html>

I also want to take this opportunity to wish you peace and the love of friends and family over the Christmas season, accompanied by the robust good health to enjoy it all!

May success and happiness be your constant companions throughout 2009.

Linda Black

